

December Dedication

I think the first example of 'December Dedication' we should talk about this week is our wonderful P1 – P3 Nativity performers. They have been dedicated to their craft, they couldn't even be put off by the boisterousness of the evening audience. All three performances have been memorable and brilliant for different reasons and the children worked so hard, you could tell that they were enjoying themselves. We are very, very proud of them.

At the other end of the school P6 were confident and purposeful in their Advent Assembly demonstrating their dedication to delivering the message of love to the Falla Hill school community. We were very impressed with their singing as well.

Across the school there has been some excellent learning. P5 and P5/4 have been writing – reports in P5 and Christmas poetry and free choice writing in P5/4. In P4 there has been fantastic Numeracy work – including adding and subtracting decimal numbers. P7 had a fantastic visit to SKY and creatively made some movie clips with special effects.

One week until we finish for the Christmas Holidays and enjoy some of that downtime we deserve.

Nursery

'We have been super busy this week having lots of festive fun by visiting Crofthead nursing home to sing Christmas songs, our nursery Christmas fayre which was a great success and we thank all our special people for coming along to support the nursery. The children had great time at our Santa walk, singing lots of Christmas songs and waving to everyone we seen and came back to nursery to have some tasty hot chocolate.'

Preloved Planet

Preloved Planet would like to thank everybody who donated to the uniform shop at the Christmas Fayre. It's good to see so many children getting preloved clothes for school. Amelia, Morgan B, Ruby and Lauren from Falla Hill Savers visited The Hub this morning to donate half of our profit to the community food shop. The ladies at The Hub were very grateful and said they would be able to stock up on lots more tins for the shop.
