

Jumpstart January

Our batteries were charged and we had the wind in our sails (until there was too much wind!)

We hope our newsletter this week finds every safe and well and hunkered down, riding out Storm Eowyn – as a Tolkein and Lord of the Rings fan I always found Eowyn to be a sympathetic character but she did have a feisty side in The Two Towers!

Well done to all on TEAMS and Seesaw today and we will see you all on Monday!

We are looking to have our first Achievement for All & Turquoise Award assembly on the 7th of February at 11:30am – if your child has an achievement you would like to share with us please complete the form in the link – please complete by 31st January.

Nursery

'This week in nursery the children have been making lots of models using different sized boxes, tubes and yoghurt pots. This is increasing the children's creativity and thinking skills as they design their own models. The children have been tidying up our garden and some discussions have taken place about plants. We will start to plant seeds and bulbs, if anyone has seeds or bulbs they would like to donate, please hand them in, thank you very much.'

Fauldhouse Community

The Hub is planning to do a free lunch drop in for the kids in the village at Eastfield for during the February break. Warburtons are supplying free bread and rolls and the Tesco champion is kindly donating cold meats, cheese, crisps and veg to make soup. So, it would be a cup of soup and lunch bag for them to take away.

Please complete the form below if you are interested in participating.

Article of the Fortnight - Article 12

Respect for children's views

Let's have a discussion at home about this...

- One of our school core values is 'Respect'. How can you respect other people's rights to have their voice heard, even if you don't agree with them?
- Do you like to share your ideas? How does it feel when you know others have listened to you?
- How does our school listen to your ideas and opinions?
 - What could you do to make your voice stronger? Is there anything you really want to speak up about?
